Complemented by extensive fieldwork, Learning to Become Turkmen is the first book in a Western language to draw on Turkmen archives, as it explores how Eurasia has been shaped historically. This study traces how Turkmen consciously used language and pedagogy to position themselves within global communities such as the Russian/Soviet Empire, the Turkish cultural continuum, and the greater Muslim world.

From Belonging to Belief
Modern Secularisms and the Construction of Religion in Kyrgyzstan

Julie McBrien

2017 • 248 pp. • 978-0-8229-6508-4 • Paper $28.95 • Ebook available • SALE PRICE: $20.27

“Through her close-in studies of religion, secularism and modernity in Kyrgyzstan, as manifest across weddings and Portuguese television debates to over mosques and schools, McBrien makes a powerful case for bringing Soviet and post-Soviet nonliberal forms of secularism into current analytical debates.”—John R. Bowen, Washington University, St. Louis

Also of interest from Russian and East European Studies

Eurasian Environments

Nature and Ecology in Imperial Russian and Soviet History
Edited by Nicholas B. Breyfogle

2018 • 426 pp. • 978-0-8229-6505-3 • Paper $29.95 • Ebook available • SALE PRICE: $20.27

“Through a series of essays, Eurasian Environments prompts us to rethink our understanding of tsarist and Soviet history by placing the human experience within the larger environmental context of flora, fauna, geology, and climate. This book is a broad look at the environmental history of Eurasia, specifically examining steppe environments, and geological specificities of place and community while unveiling the broad patterns at the environmental history of Eurasia, specifically examining steppe environments, and geological specificities of place and community while unveiling the broad patterns of climate and environmental change.”—Slavic Review

Learning to Become Turkmen

Victoria Clement

2018 • 272 pp. • 978-0-8229-6463-8 • Paper $28.95 • Ebook available • SALE PRICE: $20.27

“Complemented by extensive fieldwork, Learning to Become Turkmen is the first book in a Western language to draw on Turkmen archives, as it explores how Eurasia has been shaped historically. This study traces how Turkmen consciously used language and pedagogy to position themselves within global communities such as the Russian/Soviet Empire, the Turkish cultural continuum, and the greater Muslim world.

The Force of Custom
Law and the Ordering of Everyday Life in Kyrgyzstan

Judith Beyrer

2018 • 336 pp. • 978-0-8229-6543-5 • Paper $28.95 • Ebook available • SALE PRICE: $20.27

Beyrer presents a finely textured ethnographic study that sheds new light on the legal and moral ordering of everyday life in northwestern Kyrgyzstan. Beyrer shows how local Kyrgyz negotiate proper behavior and regulate disputes by invoking custom, known to the locals as taz. While taz is presented as age-old tradition, its invocation needs to be understood as a highly developed and flexible rhetorical strategy that people adapt to suit political, legal, economic, and religious environments.

Practicing Islam
Knowledge, Experience, and Social Navigation in Kyrgyzstan

David Montgomery

2018 • 368 pp. • 978-0-8229-6461-4 • Paper $28.95 • Ebook available • SALE PRICE: $20.27

Montgomery presents a rich ethnographic study on the practice and meaning of Islamic life in Kyrgyzstan. Through his rigorous on-the-ground research, he assembles both an anthropology of knowledge and an anthropology of Islam, demonstrating how individuals make sense of and draw meanings from their environments. This book offers the most thorough English-language study to date of Islam in post-Soviet Kyrgyzstan.

Despite Cultures
Early Soviet Rule in Tajikistan

Botakoz Kasymbekova

2018 • 368 pp. • 978-0-8229-6461-4 • Paper $28.95 • Ebook available • SALE PRICE: $20.27

Despite Cultures examines the strategies and roles of the Soviet state-building project in Tajikistan during the 1920s and 1930s. As Kasymbekova reveals, the local ruling system was built upon an intricate network of individuals, whose stated loyalty to Communism was monitored through a chain of command that stretched from Moscow through Tashkent to Dushanbe/Stalinabad.