

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	vii
ACRONYMS	xi
INTRODUCTION	3
A Fourth Decade of Brazilian Democracy Achievements, Challenges, and Polarization Peter R. Kingstone and Timothy J. Power
PART I. The Democratic Context
1. The PT in Power, 2003–2016	31
Oswaldo E. do Amaral and Rachel Meneguello
2. Good Government and Politics as Usual?	53
The Schizophrenic Path of the Workers' Party Benjamin Goldfrank and Brian Wampler
PART II. Policy Innovation & State Capacity in a Maturing Democracy
3. Corruption and Accountability in Brazil	77
Matthew M. Taylor
4. Environmental Politics in Brazil	97
The Cross-Pressures of Democracy, Development, and Global Projection Kathryn Hochstetler
5. Checking the Power of Mayors	113
Explaining Improvements in Brazilian Educational Outcomes Marcus André Melo
6. Assessing the Bolsa Família	131
Successes, Shortcomings, and Unknowns Wendy Hunter and Natasha Borges Sugiyama
7. Progress or Perdition?	152
Brazil's National Truth Commission in Comparative Perspective Anthony W. Pereira

PART III. Politics from the Bottom Up

8. Toward a (Poor) Middle-Class Democracy? 175
Upward Mobility and Politics under Lula and Dilma
Maria Hermínia Tavares de Almeida and Fernando Henrique Guarnieri
9. The Economic Context of Social Protests in 2013 190
Alfredo Saad-Filho

PART IV. Strategies of Global Projection

10. Democracy Postponed 211
A Political Economy of Brazil's Oligarchic Foreign Policy
Sean Burges and Jean Daudelin
11. The Public Bank Trilemma 230
Brazil's New Developmentalism and the BNDES
Leslie Elliott Armijo
- NOTES 249
- REFERENCES 261
- CONTRIBUTORS 291
- INDEX 297