

CONTENTS

|             |                                                                  |     |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|             | Acknowledgments                                                  | vii |
|             | Introduction to the Published Volume                             | 1   |
|             | Original Table of Contents                                       | 19  |
| CHAPTER 1.  | The Shadow of the Plantation                                     | 21  |
| CHAPTER 2.  | The Negro on the Frontier                                        | 35  |
| CHAPTER 3.  | The Early Community, 1804–1860                                   | 53  |
| CHAPTER 4.  | Abolition Years                                                  | 100 |
| CHAPTER 5.  | Civil Rights                                                     | 168 |
| CHAPTER 6.  | The Negro Wage Worker                                            | 216 |
| CHAPTER 7.  | Church, School and Press                                         | 230 |
| CHAPTER 8.  | The Later Community                                              | 250 |
| CHAPTER 12. | Folkways                                                         | 259 |
| CHAPTER 13. | Arts and Culture                                                 | 293 |
| CHAPTER 14. | The People Speak                                                 | 334 |
| APPENDIX 1. | Memorial of Pittsburgh’s Free Citizens of Color, 1837            | 361 |
| APPENDIX 2. | Lewis Woodson’s “Birthday Memorandum” of 1856                    | 368 |
| APPENDIX 3. | Two Poems by George B. Vashon: “Vincent Ogé”and “A Life Day” | 369 |

Note: Chapter numbers are not consecutive due to missing chapters in the original manuscript.

|             |                                                                                  |     |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| APPENDIX 4. | Transcriptions of Selected Newspaper Items                                       | 383 |
| APPENDIX 5. | Bibliography                                                                     | 398 |
| APPENDIX 6. | List of Microfilmed Materials                                                    | 407 |
| Maps | African American Migration Routes to Pittsburgh,1760-1860                    | 409 |
|             | Underground Railroad Routes in WesternPennsylvania                           | 410 |
|             | Pittsburgh Downtown, Hill District, and Allegheny City(North Side), ca. 1850 | 411 |
|             | Pittsburgh Neighborhoods and Settlements, 1865                                   | 412 |
|             | Index                                                                            | 413 |