

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 3

Martin Knoll, Uwe Lübken, and Dieter Schott

PART I. RIVERS CONTROLLED: CITIES AND THEIR WATERSHEDS

Chapter 1. Rivers, Industrial Cities, and Hinterland Production in Quebec in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries 25

Stéphane Castonguay

Chapter 2. The Seine as a Parisian River: Its Imprint, Its Ascendancy, and Its Mutual Dependencies in the Eighteenth through the Twentieth Century 46

Sabine Barles

Chapter 3. Watershed Democracy or Ecological Hinterland? London and the Thames River Basin, 1857–1989 63

Vanessa Taylor

PART II. URBAN RIVERS TRANSFORMED AND LOST

Chapter 4. The City Whose Rivers Disappeared: Nantes, 1850–1950 85

Geneviève Massard-Guilbaud

Chapter 5. The New Cuyahoga: Straightening Cleveland's Crooked River 107

David Stradling

Chapter 6. A “Slum River”: The Unequal Urbanization of Bogotá (Colombia) and the Transformation of the Tunjuelo River in the Twentieth Century 123

Vladimir Sánchez-Calderón

Chapter 7. Urbanizing a River in a Bicultural Border Region: Strasbourg and the Upper Rhine on the Way to Water Modernity, 1789–1925 140

Christoph Bernhardt

Chapter 8. Path Dependencies Managing the River Elbe and the Requirements of Hamburg’s Open Tidal Seaport 156

Dirk Schubert

PART III. CULTURAL DIMENSIONS OF URBAN RIVERS

Chapter 9. Rivers as Prisms of Urban Imagining: Eastern Sichuan Work Songs 177

Igor Iwo Chabrowski

Chapter 10. The Ganges as an Urban Sink: Urban Waste and River Flow in Colonial India in the Nineteenth Century 200

Awadhendra Sharan

Chapter 11. Polluted Thames, Declining City: London as an Ecosystem in Charles Dickens’s Our Mutual Friend 216

Agnes Kneitz

Chapter 12. Living on the River over the Year: The Significance of the Neva to Imperial Saint Petersburg 235

Alexei Kraikovski and Julia Lajus

PART IV. RIVERS REGAINED

Chapter 13. “A Ridiculous Failure of Government”: The Chicago River in the Age of Ecology 255

Harold L. Platt

Chapter 14. Shared Waters, Shared Conceptions? Two Cities on the River
Rhine on the Long and Winding Road to Urban Sustainability 273
Michael Toyka-Seid

Chapter 15. Revitalization of a Tamed River: The Isar in Munich 288
Nico Döring and Georg Jochum

Chapter 16. Union Is a Raging River, or Remembering Fez as the River
Remembers 312
Shelley Hornstein

Notes 331

List of Contributors 403

Index 407