

Contents

The River Spirits

- I “Think of me as a rat” 3
- II “In the blue and sleeping hours” 4
- III “By few accounts it was a jewelled lake that spring” 5
- IV “Once when the Italian girl” 6
- V “So much snow falling suddenly” 7
- VI “That dude named Homer Brown” 8
- VII “Crude” 10
- VIII “Yes the bus will take you to Hazelwood” 11
- IX “A lightning storm” 13
- X “She denied it to everyone” 14
- XI “Warm winter” 15
- XII “Last or next or first” 17
- XIII “TUKAJ POCIVA” 18
- XIV “One rat under the snow sleeps invisible” 23

The Neck of the Air

- A Rhyme for Halloween 27
- Long Distance 28
- A Little Thing 29
- When the Light Turned Red 30
- U-turn 32
- Doña Josefina Counsels Doña Concepción Before
Entering Sears 33
- How Grammar School Is Changing 34
- Once When I Was in the Eighth Grade 35
- Dorothy, Dear 36
- A City Prophet Talks to God on the 56C to Hazelwood 37
- Beyond Kigali 38

The Miniaturist	39
The Hours of Our Dreaming	40
Inquiries	41
The Yellow Borges: An Answer to a Question	42
Make-up	43
The Story of Tapioca	44
How We Learn How Small Our Voice Is	45
Omens in a Small Town	46
Where Were You?	47
Ohioyle Unrhymed	48

The Other World

Un poema de poca sangre	51
A Poem of Little Blood	52
To the Dead Farmer	53
The Straightest Branches	54
The Easter Revolt Painted on a Tablespoon	55
The Tower in the Clouds	56
At Twilight on the Road to Sogamoso	57
The Archivist of Shadows	58
In Nariño Nakopemda Balahika Sings, Dances, and Answers the Many Questions of Her Cinnamon Daughter	59
I Sing on the Day of the Deceased	61
Homage to My Emerald Body	63
Homenaje a mi cuerpo de esmeralda	64
Acknowledgments	65