

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
List of Abbreviations	xiii
1 Institutional Choice and Democratic Survival in New Democracies	I
2 Weimar Germany: Defective Institutional Choice	26
3 Interwar Poland: Institutional Choice by Imposition	78
4 The Federal Republic of Germany: Learning from History	114
5 Postcommunist Poland: Institutional Choice as an Extended Process	183
6 Conclusion	247
Notes	265
References	285
Index	304

Illustrations

Figures

1.1	Structure of Linz's Argument on Presidentialism	5
1.2	Structure of Sartori's Argument on Party Systems	7
1.3	Structure of Institutional Choice Arguments	8
1.4	Bringing the Two Arguments Together	21
2.1	Interaction of Institutional and Contextual Variables in the Breakdown of Democracy in Weimar Germany	74
3.1	Interaction of Institutional and Contextual Variables in the Breakdown of Democracy in Interwar Poland	112

Tables

2.1	Elections to State Parliaments, Deputies from Socialist vs. Bourgeois Parties, December 1918–January 1919	37
2.2	National Assembly Elections of 1919 vs. Reichstag Elections of 1912	39
2.3	Governments of the Weimar Republic	65
2.4	The Shift from Parliamentary Government to Dictatorship by Emergency Rule	69
2.5	Reichstag Mandates and Coalition Possibilities, 1920–1933	71
2.6	Combined Mandates in the Reichstag for the Weimar Coalition, 1919–1933	77
3.1	Distribution of Seats by Party in the Constituent Sejm, 1919–1922	87
3.2	Ethnic and Religious Groups in the Population of Interwar Poland, 1921	88
3.3	Elections to the Sejm and Senat, November 1922	102
4.1	Distribution of Seats in the Parliamentary Council by State, Zone, and Party, 1948	141

4.2	Ratification Votes on the Basic Law by State Parliaments	148
4.3	Composition of the First Bundestag, Elected August 14, 1949, by Party and State	149
5.1	Composition of the Sejm following the Semi-Contested Elections of 1989	191
5.2	Composition of the Sejm as of November 1990	210
5.3	Factional Groupings within Solidarity's "Citizens' Parliamentary Club," November 1990	211
5.4	Elections to the Sejm, October 27, 1991	213
5.5	Elections to the Sejm, September 19, 1993	216
5.6	Governments during Lech Wałęsa's Presidency and Alexander Kwasniewski's First Term, 1990–2000	221