

CONTENTS

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi

Part One: Civil Society and the Control of Political Power

1 Social Accountability: An Introduction	3
Enrique Peruzzotti and Catalina Smulovitz
2 The Effectiveness of Law: Civil Society and the Public Prosecution in Brazil	34
Rosangela Batista Calvancanti
3 Judicialization of Protest in Argentina: The Case of Corralito	55
Catalina Smulovitz
4 Multiple Activation as a Strategy of Citizen Accountability and the Role of the Investigating Legislative Commissions	75
Ana Tereza Lemos-Nelson and Jorge Zaverucha
5 Critical Junctures of Social Accountability: Lessons from Latin America	115
Nuria Cunill Grau
6 Violent Police, Passive Citizens: The Failure of Social Accountability in Chile	134
Claudio A. Fuentes
7 Social Accountability in Mexico: The Civic Alliance Experience	178
Alberto J. Olvera Rivera
8 Mobilization and Accountability: A Study of Social Control in the “Cabezas” Case in Argentina	213
Jacqueline Behrend

Part Two: Watchdog Journalism and Social Accountability

- 9 Media Scandals and Social Accountability: Assessing the Role of the Senate Scandal in Argentina 249
Enrique Peruzzotti
- 10 Reading Scandals: Scandals, Media, and Citizenship in Contemporary Argentina 272
Silvio R. Waisbord

Part Three: Some Theoretical Issues

- 11 Accountability and Civil Society 307
Andrew Arato
- 12 Social Accountability in Latin America and Beyond 323
Adam Przeworski
- 13 Notes on Various Accountabilities and Their Interrelations 334
Guillermo O'Donnell
- 14 Concluding Remarks 344
Enrique Peruzzotti and Catalina Smulovitz
- List of Contributors 355
- Index 359