

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: What Are Working-Class Rhetorics? 1
William DeGenaro

Part I. Toward a Working-Class Rhetorical Tradition

Articulating the Values of Labor and Laboring:
Civic Rhetoric and Heritage Tourism 11
James V. Catano

“Miners Starve, Idle or Working”: Working-Class
Rhetoric of the Early Twentieth Century 32
Judith D. Hoover

“Don’t Let Them Step on You”: Gender, Class,
and Ethnicity in the Rhetoric of the Great Strikes,
1909–1913 47
Anne F. Mattina

Unsettling Working-Class Commonplaces in
Jane Addams’s Settlement House Rhetoric 69
Melissa J. Fiesta

The Culture of Steel and Memory: A Rhetorical
Analysis of the Youngstown Historical Center of Industry and Labor 88
Anthony Esposito

Part II. Rhetorics of the Workplace

The Rhetoric of Migrant Farmworkers 107
Emily Plec

Miles of Trials: The Life and Livelihood of the Long-Haul Trucker 127
Melanie Bailey Mills

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Rhetoric on the Concrete Pour: The Dance ofDecision MakingDale Cyphert                              | 144 |
| Workplace Risk Communication: A Look atLiterate Practice within Rhetorical FrameworksLew Caccia     | 164 |
| Problematized Providing and Protecting:The Occupational Narrative of the Working ClassKristen Lucas | 180 |

Part III. Rhetorical Critiques of Working-Class Pop Culture

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| The Rhetorics of Reality TV and the Feminizationof Working-Class IdentityCatherine Chaput                                 | 203 |
| The Rhetoric of “I Have a Dream”: The RemixKermit Campbell  | 226 |
| Fatness as the Embodiment of Working-Class RhetoricKathleen LeBesco   | 238 |
| Establishing Counterhegemony through Narrative:The Comic Books of the Congress of IndustrialOrganizationsSteve Martin | 256 |
| Conclusion: Working-Class Rhetoric asEthnographic SubjectJulie Lindquist  | 271 |
| List of Contributors   | 287 |
| Index  | 291 |