CONTENTS

Preface
Introduction: The Indomitable City and Its Environmental Context
STEVEN M. AVELLA

Part I. Boomtown Sacramento

1. John A. Sutter and the Indian Business
   ALBERT L. HURTADO
2. River City: Sacramento's Gold Rush Birth and Transfiguration
   KENNETH N. OWENS
3. “We Must Give the World Confidence in the Stability and Permanence of the Place”: Planning Sacramento’s Townsite, 1853–1870
   NATHAN HALLAM
4. Railroads and the Urban Environment: Sacramento’s Story
   RICHARD J. ORSI

Part II. Valley Reclamation

5. The Perils of Agriculture in Sacramento’s Untamed Hinterland
   DAVID VAUGHT
   TODD HOLMES
7. Forging Transcontinental Alliances: The Sacramento River Valley in National Drainage and Flood Control Politics, 1900–1917
   ANTHONY E. CARLSON
8. Both “Country Town” and “Bustling Metropolis”: How Boosterism, Suburbs, and Narrative Helped Shape Sacramento’s Identity and Environmental Sensibilities
   PAUL J. P. SANDUL

Part III. Government Town

9. Unseen Investment: New Deal Sacramento
   GRAY BRECHIN AND LEE M. A. SIMPSON
10. The Legacy of War: Sacramento’s Military Bases  200
    RAND HERBERT
11. Recalling Rancho Seco: Voicing a Nuclear Past  216
    CHRISTOPHER J. CASTANEDA

Part IV. Reclaiming the Past
12. Dreams, Realizations, and Nightmares: The American River Parkway’s
    Tumultuous Life, 1915–2011  241
    ALFRED E. HOLLAND, JR.
13. Thunder over the Valley: Environmental Politics and Indian Gaming in California  267
    TANIS C. THORNE
14. The Invention of Old Sacramento: A Past for the Future  290
    LEE M. A. SIMPSON AND LISA C. PRINCE

Epilogue: Sacramento, Before and After the Gold Rush  313
    TY O. SMITH

Notes  321
Contributors  385
Index  389