

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS vii

INTRODUCTION ix

1. Corrupt Air, Poisonous Places, and the Toxic Breath of Witches in Late Medieval Medicine and Theology 1
Brenda Gardenour Walter
2. Surgeon Reginald Orton and the Pathology of Deadly Air: The Contest for Context in Environmental Health 23
Christopher Hamlin
3. Better to Cry Than Die? The Paradoxes of Tear Gas in the Vietnam Era 50
Roger Eardley-Pryor
4. Toxic Soldiers: Chemicals and the Bodies of Gulf War Syndrome Sufferers 77
Susie Kilshaw
5. Deciphering the Chemistry of Los Angeles Smog, 1945–1995 95
Peter Brimblecombe
6. Chasing Molecules: Chemistry and Technology for Automotive Emissions Control 109
Richard Chase Dunn and Ann Johnson
7. CHESS Lessons: Controversy and Compromise in the Making of the EPA 127
Jongmin Lee
8. A Heightened Controversy: Nuclear Weapons Testing, Radioactive Tracers, and the Dynamic Stratosphere 152
E. Jerry Jessee

9. Burning Rain: The Long-Range Transboundary Air Pollution Project	181
Rachel Rothschild
10. The Transmutation of Ozone in the Early 1970s	208
Matthias Dörries
11. Who Owns the Air? Contemporary Art Addresses the Climate Crisis	230
Andrea Polli
12. Carbon “Die”-Oxide: The Personal and the Planetary	252
James Rodger Fleming
CONTRIBUTORS
	271
INDEX
	275