

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS vii

INTRODUCTION I

PART ONE. UNSETTLED FOUNDATIONS

Chapter 1. The Urban Politics of Propriety through Revolution and Reaction 23

Chapter 2. Property, Governance, and the City: A Longue Durée
Perspective 40

PART TWO. INSURGENT OWNERSHIP

Chapter 3. A Place in the State: Housing Activism and the Seizure of Land, May Day, 1969 71

Chapter 4. Specters in the Revolution: Dilemmas of Home during the Chilean Path to Socialism 101

PART THREE. REACTIONARY TURNS

Chapter 5. Locating States of Emergency: The Politics of “Normalization” after the Military Coup 135

Chapter 6. Aesthetics of Order: Forging Spaces of Distinction amid Neoliberal Expansion 164

PART FOUR. DOMESTICATED PERIPHERIES

Chapter 7. Containing Protest in the Transition to Democracy 193

Chapter 8. Fractures of Home and Nation: Property Titling
after the Dictatorship 219

Chapter 9. The Indignities of Home in the Margins of Modern Urban Life 242

CONCLUSION 264

NOTES 273

GLOSSARY AND ACRONYMS 305

REFERENCES 307

INDEX 335