
CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION: Reforming Communism in Comparative Perspective
Jorge Pérez-López and Scott Morgenstern, with Jerome Branche	1
PART 1: ECONOMICS
1. Models of Economic Reform and Cuba's "Updating" of Its Model
Scott Morgenstern and Jorge Pérez-López, with Carlos Alzugaray and Kevin Morrison	41
2. Initial Conditions and Economic Development: The East Asian "Tigers" and Cuba
James W. McGuire	55
3. Foreign Investment and Economic Growth in Cuba: Lessons from China
Jorge Pérez-López and Yu Xiao	85
4. Resolving U.S. Property Expropriation Claims against Cuba
Matías F. Travieso-Díaz	117
PART 2: POLICY AND POLITICS
5. Socialist Social Contracts and Accountability
Martin K. Dimitrov	135
6. The Cuban Communist Party at the Cusp of Change
Larry Catá Backer	157
7. The Prospects for Cuban Democracy in the Post-Transition Era
Aníbal Pérez-Liñán and Scott Mainwaring	192
8. Cuban Social Security Reforms Compared with Latin America, China, and Vietnam
Carmelo Mesa-Lago	211

9. The Future of the Cuban Social Protection: Analysis from the Latin American Window
Javier Vázquez-D'Elía	244
10. After the Fall: Postcommunist Dynamics in Central and Eastern Europe and Their Implications for Cuba
Ronald H. Linden	271
PART 3: CITIZENS AND SOCIETY
11. The Living Lie and the Living Eye: Cuba's Reforms and the Racial Contract
Alan West-Durán	299
12. From Domestic to Statist Violence: Debate and Representation in the Cuban Cultural Field
Ana Belén Martín Sevillano	321
13. Somos Mucho Más (We Are Much More): An Analysis of Cuban Hip-Hop Activism and Arts-Based Public Spheres
Tanya Saunders	342
CONCLUSION: Comparative Lessons for Understanding Cuba's Path: Politics, Economics, and Society
Scott Morgenstern and Ronald H. Linden	368
Contributors	385
Index	391