THE STORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH, 1787–1987
ROBERT C. ALBERTS
$49.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-6235-9 • 596 pp.
This is a history of the University of Pittsburgh from its birth on the western frontier in the eighteenth century through its two-hundredth anniversary. Told primarily through the stories of its energetic and sometimes eccentric chancellors, it’s a colorful and highly readable chronicle.

The WPA History of the Negro in Pittsburgh
LAURENCE GLASCO
$22.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-6144-4 • 432 pp.
“Offers the most comprehensive single study of the city’s black population to date. . . . Glasco’s introduction pinpoints the strengths and weaknesses in the manuscript, offers brilliant biographical notes on its principal contributors, and places the manuscript within the broader historical context of the New Deal.”—Joe W. Trotter, Carnegie Mellon University

Pittsburgh Surveyed
SOCIAL SCIENCE AND SOCIAL REFORM IN THE EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY
EDITED BY MAURINE GREENWALD AND MARGO ANDERSON
$34.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5610-5 • 368 pp.
“It’s a must read for anyone interested in the history of Pittsburgh or a better understanding of the social workers, sociologists, and reformers who comprised turn-of-the-century progressivism. Pittsburgh Surveyed is also an exceptionally well-produced volume, nicely designed with high quality graphic presentation.”—Pennsylvania History

City at The Point
ESSAYS ON THE SOCIAL HISTORY OF PITTSBURGH
SAMUEL P. HAYS
$34.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5447-7 • 492 pp.
“Essential reading for several kinds of people: urban social historians seeking a unified summary of what their field has accomplished in the case of one city; readers interested in any if the topics represented; and of course anyone interested in the history of Pittsburgh.”—Journal of Social History

A Panorama of Pittsburgh
NINETEENTH-CENTURY PRINTED VIEWS
EDITED BY CHRISTOPHER W. LANE
$24.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-6015-7 • 221 pp.
“A sumptuous collection . . . a visual tour-de-force that deftly ties diverse prints into a thematic chronology.”—Pennsylvania Heritage Magazine
Twentieth-Century Pittsburgh, Volume One
GOVERNMENT, BUSINESS, AND ENVIRONMENTAL CHANGE
ROY LUBOVE
$26.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5551-1 • 208 pp.
“A useful, timely, and provocative contribution to the growing literature on community planning in the twentieth century.”—Journal of American History

Twentieth-Century Pittsburgh, Volume Two
THE POST-STEEL ERA
ROY LUBOVE
$31.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5566-5 • 432 pp.
“The book broadens our understanding of how late-twentieth-century American cities are adjusting to declining regional industries. It may serve as a model for additional analysis of the impact and direction of postindustrial economic forces and for evaluation of the important policy choices facing political, business, and cultural leaders.”—Journal of American History

A Traveler’s Guide to Historic Western Pennsylvania
LOIS MULKEARN AND EDWIN V. PUGH
$34.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-8355-2 • 454 pp.
This is a county-by-county guide to historic landmarks in western Pennsylvania, and how to reach them. Twenty-seven counties are included, along with maps of each. Along the way, travelers will find historic forts, residences of leading citizens, old iron furnaces, grist mills, churches, inns, taverns, and many other intriguing places. Historians Mulkearn and Pugh personally visited each site, and provide background vignettes, offering interesting facts and highlights gathered from archival documents.

Allegheny City
A HISTORY OF PITTSBURGH’S NORTH SIDE
DAN ROONEY AND CAROL PETERSON
$24.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-6313-4 • 264 pp
$29.95 • Hardcover • 978-0-8229-4422-5 • 264 pp.
“Dan Rooney and house historian Carol Peterson co-write a fine new history of the North Side. Some high points of this story are familiar, but this book invariably tells them with a welcome historical precision and humanistic nuance.”—Pittsburgh City Paper
Pittsburgh Then and Now
ARTHUR G. SMITH
$32.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5929-8 • 336 pp.
“Pittsburgh Then and Now . . . may make your blood boil and bring tears to your eyes, but this is not just a story of Lost Pittsburgh. . . . Smith’s book is a reminder that cities are more than collections of buildings. They are repositories of memories, keepers of dreams.”—Pittsburgh Press

The Spencers of Amberson Avenue
A TURN-OF-THE-CENTURY MEMOIR
ETHEL SPENCER
$19.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5356-2 • 208 pp.
“[The book] provides a detailed window into a time when horses pulled delivery wagons down Shadyside’s still-unpaved streets. The children’s father, who worked for Frick Coke, was a talented amateur photographer whose pictures add glimpses of what life was like for an upper-middle-class family at the turn of the last century.”—Pittsburgh Magazine

TWO HUNDRED YEARS OF THE POST-GAZETTE
CLARKE M. THOMAS
$40.00 • Cloth • 978-0-8229-4248-1 • 344 pp.
“A wonderful book! Enjoyable, informative, and well written. It gives readers the inside story about the peculiar merger of the Post and the Gazette in the 1920s and the incredible account of the survival of the Post-Gazette rather than the Press during the 1990s.”—Van Beck Hall, University of Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh: A New Portrait
FRANKLIN TOKER
$37.95 • Cloth • 978-0-8229-4371-6 • 528 pp.
“The book is ambitious and lavish, with vivid photographs and helpful maps. From the glaciers that built the town and the epidemics and fires that reshaped it, to the renaissances that renewed it and the indomitable spirit that sustains it, Pittsburgh is a great American city—the ‘indispensable American city,’ in the words of native son David McCullough. Now it possesses the great architectural guide that every great American city deserves—and few possess.”—Wall Street Journal
