AND THE LOAD FILLED UP

ROY BLOUNT JR.

$19.95 • Paper • 978-0-8229-5834-5 • 376 pp.

"Not merely is Three Bricks funny, smart, perceptive and winning, there's also a lovely quality about it that, for all the ferocity of the gridiron and the profanity of some of its language, I'd call gentleness. It's a book about men in groups, this particular group being one that plays a very rough game, and it's actually far less about football than about people."—Washington Post

"When I was an eight-year-old Yankee fan, the '60 Pirates and Bill Mazeroski broke my heart. I am only now prepared to forgive and recommend this fine volume which celebrates the colorful and often glorious history of the Pirates."—Bob Costas
