

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction. Faulkner's Spatial Politics	1
Chapter 1. Comparative Southern Questions: The Unavoidable Significance of the Local	21
Chapter 2. Social Classes in the Southern Economy: Snopesism and the Emergence of a Comprador Elite	68
Chapter 3. The Poetics of Peripheralization, Part 1: Historiography, Narrative, and Unequal Development	100
Chapter 4. The Poetics of Peripheralization, Part 2: Absalom, Absalom! as Revisionist Historiography	130
Conclusion. The World, the Text, and Eurocentric Intellectualism	161
Notes	175
Works Cited	191
Index	205