

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Preface	xi
Note on Language	xv
Prague— Panoramas of History	1
Chapter 1: Preserving the National Past for the Future	17
Chapter 2: Art Meets Politics	37
Chapter 3: Generational Approaches to National Monuments	56
Chapter 4: World War I and the Jan Hus Jubilee	74
Chapter 5: Toppling Columns, Building a Capital in Revolutionary Prague	87
Chapter 6: Catholic Czech Nationalism in the early 1920s	100
Chapter 7: Religious Heroes for a Secular State	115
Chapter 8: Modern Churches, Living Cathedrals	139
Chapter 9: National Heroes and Nazi Rule	158
Chapter 10: God's Warriors on Vítkov Hill	170
Chapter 11: Rebuilding Bethlehem Chapel	189
Chapter 12: Old Symbols to Oppose the New Regime	210
Chapter 13: Religious and National Symbols in Post-Communist Prague	228
Epilogue— New Times, New Monuments	246
Notes	255
Selected Bibliography	279
Index	297