

Contents

Foreword	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Chapter 1	1
Collapse of the Steel Industry, 1982 / The Mon Valley, 1987 / What This Book Is About / Union Drama in a Ballroom / The Procedures Obscured the Reality
Chapter 2	24
The Union Movement Loses Momentum / Management's Strategic Failures / The Turning Point After World War II / Union Weakness in the Reagan Era / A Train Back East / Union-Busting Precedents / The Vulnerability of Unions in America
Chapter 3	52
The Life and Style of Lloyd McBride / A Threatening Trend / Concession Bargaining Comes to Steel / Ed Ayoub's Productivity Concerns / Legalistic Language, Bountiful Benefits
Chapter 4	82
On Strike in McKeesport / From Carnegie Steel to U.S. Steel / The Making of a Corporate Bureaucracy / Steel's Shortsighted Business Strategies / The 1940s and 1950s: Strikes and Strike Threats / Government Involvement in Wages and Prices
Chapter 5	109
The No-Strike Agreement / Bruce Johnston: Labor Took Too Much / Quiet Talks on the ENA / A Mission to Linden Hall

viii Contents

Chapter 6	134
Something of Importance in the Mon Valley / Pouring Oil on Troubled Steel / The Mon Valley Unemployed Committee / Views of the Rank and File / A Mechanism for Reform: LMPTs
Chapter 7	162
Early Days on the Mon / Industry Equals Progress / The Immigrants Divided / Life in the Mill Towns / Politics McKeesport Style / The Effect of Social Environment / Growing Up in McKeesport: The Forties
Chapter 8	194
The "Downside" Cycle: The UAW / The UAW-USW Rivalry / Auto Bargaining in 1982 / The 1982 Ford Contract / Failure at GM / Moving Toward Negotiations in Steel
Chapter 9	215
The 1982 Recession Worsens / The BSIC Debates Reopening / A Communications Fizzle / How Industrywide Bargaining Started
Chapter 10	236
The 1982 Talks Begin / The Failure of Round One / The Propaganda War / "Democracy" and Dissent in the USW / The Dissidents of 1982
Chapter 11	261
Mike Bilcsik, Idealist / SWOC and Labor-Management Cooperation / Murray's Ambivalence About Cooperation / Labor's Failed Bid for a Wartime Voice / Postwar Confrontations / The USW Turns Away from Cooperation / The Scanlon Plan: A Beginning / Attempts to Reform the Bargaining Relationship / Management Proposes LMPT's in the 1980s
Chapter 12	296
Demoralization / "Working" in the Mill, ca. 1950 / The Management Bureaucracy / "Scientific Management" / The Safety Program: A Numbers Game / Quantity Over Quality / Section 2B / Union Corruption
Chapter 13	333
Atlantic City, September 1982 / Wage Cuts and Profit-Sharing / The Round Two Bargain / The BSIC Votes NO / The Reasons Why / The Aftermath

Chapter 14	361
Bad News in 1983 / A Groundswell for Concessions / What the Rank and File Wanted / Odorcich's Odyssey / Odorcich Versus Johnston: A Deal Is Struck / The Last Industrywide Ratification / Results of the 1983 Settlement / The USW Gave Up More Than It Intended
Chapter 15	390
The Minimum Wage Recovery / Decline of the Blue- Collar Worker / A Change in Leadership / Williams Versus McKee / The Making of a USW President
Chapter 16	415
Roderick's Tough Leadership / The Worldwide Restructuring of Steel / Labor Reforms at J&L / Confrontations at U.S. Steel / Cutting People at U.S. Steel / The "Graham Revolution" / The 1984 Plant Shutdowns / Conclusion: Both Sides Failed
Chapter 17	447
A Transition Period / New USW Policies / Trouble at Wheeling-Pittsburgh / A Unique Settlement at Wheeling- Pittsburgh / New Approaches I: National Steel / New Approaches II: Weirton Steel / The End of Coordinated Bargaining
Chapter 18	477
Winding Down at McKeesport and Aliquippa / Union- Management Efforts to Save LTV / Developing a Strategy for 1986 / Creating a "Level Playing Field" / A U.S. Steel Initiative / A New Kind of Bargaining at LTV / An Innovative Agreement at National Steel / Settlements at Bethlehem, Inland, and Armco / Epilogue: LTV and the Steel Pension Crisis
Chapter 19	513
The "Crisis in Steel" Campaign / Trouble in the Metal Industries / U.S. Steel: Round One / The Impact of the LTV Bankruptcy / Going on Strike... or Lockout / The UC Decisions / Lasting It Out
Chapter 20	539
The Icahn Takeover Bid / USX: Round Two / USX: Round Three / The 1987 USX Settlement / The Final Blow / A Concluding Note

X Contents

Chapter 21	567
The Once and Future Valley / The Human Price / Mon Valley Fragmentation Revisited / Activism: Service and Protest / Campaigns to Save Plants
Chapter 22	589
The Post-Manufacturing Era in Pittsburgh / How Mature Industries Impede New Businesses / The Mon Valley in Retrospect
Chapter 23	605
A Great Industrial Failure / Relating Wages to Productivity / "The Road Not Taken" / Beginnings of a New Industrial Relations System / Issues for Unions
A Note on Sources	623
Notes	627
Index	681

Map of the Pittsburgh region facing page 1

Map of steel works in the Monongahela Valley, 1987 facing page 568

Illustrations follow page 235 and page 389.