

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Part I: Introduction	1
Emmett H. Buell Jr.
1. Political Parties and Presidential Ambition 7
James W. Ceaser
Part II: Presidential Nominations of the Pre-Convention Era	31
Emmett H. Buell Jr.
Evolution of the Presidential Selection Process During the Constitutional Convention 40
William G. Mayer
2. Federalist 68: The Mode of Electing the President 56
Alexander Hamilton
3. The Origin and Development of the Congressional Caucus 60
William G. Morgan
4. State Nominations of 1824 Candidates 75
Part III: The National Nominating Convention	79
Emmett H. Buell Jr.
5. The First National Nominating Convention 111
Samuel Eliot Morison
6. Why Great Men Are Not Chosen President 125
James Bryce
7. The National Convention 132
M. Ostrogorski
8. Rationality and Uncertainty at National Nominating Conventions 150
Eugene B. McGregor Jr.

9.	The Revolution in the Presidential Nominating Convention	164
	William G. Carleton
10.	Television's Great Leap Forward	177
	Sig Mickelson
Part IV: The Rise of a Primary-Dominated Process		193
	Emmett H. Buell Jr.
11.	Why I Believe in the Direct Primary	220
	George W. Norris
12.	What the Political Parties Are Not	230
	E. E. Schattschneider
13.	Party Reform: Revisionism Revised	236
	Kenneth A. Bode and Carol F. Casey
Part V: Back to the Future? Proposals for Change		253
	Emmett H. Buell Jr.
14.	Democracy vs. Elections	265
	Michael Walzer
15.	The Case for a National Pre-Primary Convention Plan	271
	Thomas Cronin and Robert Loevy
16.	Model Legislation for a Rotating Regional Primary Scheme in 2004	279
17.	Two Cheers for the National Primary	281
	Michael Nelson
	Notes	291
	Index	315

Tables and Figures

Tables

1.	Democratic and Republican Presidential Nominations, Grouped by Convention Eras	85
2.	Convention Type and Success of Nominees in Presidential Elections, 1856–2000	86
3.	Backgrounds of Democratic and Republican Presidential Nominees	90
4.	Nominating Systems and Perceived Presidential Greatness	93
5.	State Factors in Balancing of Democratic and Republican Tickets, 1836–2000	95
6.	Comparisons of State Factors in Ticket Balancing
7.	Multi-Ballot and Near Multi-Ballot Conventions Since 1872, by Party	151
8.	Delegate Vote Shifts for the Democratic Conventions of 1932 and 1952 and the Republican Conventions of 1940 and 1952	154
9.	Voting Shifts for Major Candidates in Democratic Conventions of 1932 and 1952 and Republican Conventions of 1940 and 1952	156
10.	Predicted Winners of Democratic Multi-Ballot Conventions, 1976 to 1952	160
11.	Predicted Winners of Republican Multi-Ballot Conventions, 1876 to 1948	161
12.	Major Reforms Promulgated by Democratic Commissions	199
13.	Front-Runner Advantage in Endorsements, 2000 Invisible Primary	206
14.	Relationship of Scheduling to Democratic Primary Vote Totals	210
15.	Relationship of Scheduling to Republican Primary Vote Totals	211

16. Votes Cast in Front-Loaded Primaries Before and After Republican "Break Points"	213
17. Direct National Primary Bills and Resolutions Introduced in Congress, 1911–1979	260
18. Popular and Partisan Support for a Direct National Primary in the Gallup Poll, 1952–1988	261

Figures

1. Increase in Presidential Primaries after 1968	200
2. Total Vote Cast in Democratic and Republican Primaries, 1912–2000	209
3. Party Identification of Voting-Age Whites, 1960–2000	214