

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Challenges for Environmental History JEFFRY M. DIEFENDORF AND KURK DORSEY	1
PART I: CITIES	11
1. The Metabolism of the Industrial City: The Case of Pittsburgh JOEL A. TARR	15
2. Los Angeles's Nature: Urban Environmental Politics in the Twentieth Century SARAH S. ELKIND	38
3. The Environmental Transformation of the Ruhr URSULA VON PETZ	52
PART II: COUNTRYSIDE	77
4. Of REITS and Rights: Absentee Ownership in the Periphery ELIZABETH BLACKMAR	81
5. Floods and Landscapes in the Inland West NANCY LANGSTON	99
6. The Industrial Alchemy of Hydraulic Mining: Law, Technology, and Resource-Intensive Industrialization ANDREW C. ISENBERG	122
PART III: EMPIRES	139
7. West Africa's Colonial Fungus: Globalization Science at the End of Empire, 1949-2000 JAMES MCCANN	139
8. When Stalin Learned to Fish: Natural Resources, Technology, and Industry under Socialism PAUL R. JOSEPHSON	143
9. Yellow Jack and Geopolitics: Environment, Epidemics, and the Struggles for Empire in the American Tropics, 1650-1900 J. R. MCNEILL	193
10. Creation and Destruction in Landscapes of Empire THOMAS P. DUNLAP	207
11. Afterword: Environmental History, Past, Present, and Future ALFRED W. CROSBY	226

Notes	233
List of Contributors	275
Index	277