

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

Writing Baseball

The Country of Baseball 11

DONALD HALL

Searching for January 18

W. P. KINSELLA

From Backlots to Big Leagues: Pittsburgh's Early Baseball

Professional Baseball in Pittsburgh 27

WILLIAM E. BENSWANGER

A Brilliant Victory 33

STAFF REPORTER

Louis Bierbauer 34

ALFRED H. SPINK

"Godfather of Pirates" Lies in Unmarked Grave 36

HARRY KECK

Building a Winning Tradition

Barney Dreyfuss Enters the Scene 41

FREDERICK G. LIEB

The Mighty Honus 47

FREDERICK G. LIEB

Pirates Wallop the Beaneaters 57

JOHN H. GRUBER

Take Him Out 62

CHRISTY MATHEWSON

Tommy Leach 63

LAWRENCE S. RITTER

Chadwick's Chat 69

HENRY CHADWICK

Pirates Lose First Game on Forbes Field 71

STAFF REPORTER

Pirates Outgame Tigers for Title 76

RING LARDNER

Babe Adams 79

HERBERT F. MCDUGAL

Hans Wagner 83

CHET SMITH

The Greatest World Series Ever and the Damn Yankees

Hot Corner? Traynor, No Argument 87

BOB BROEG

Big, Little, Young, Old—All Pay Tribute to Pie 96

ROY MCHUGH

World's Title Battle Never Equalled for Thrills, Heroic Action 98

CHARLES J. DOYLE

Pirates Should Take Rank with the Greatest of Clubs, Runyon Says 105

DAMON RUNYON

Paul Waner 108

LAWRENCE S. RITTER

Lloyd Waner 115

DONALD HONIG

Landis Dumps Lardner's Novel "Serious" Scheme 121

RING LARDNER

Yanks Win Baseball Championship 124

RALPH S. DAVIS

Bambino Expected Quick End 126

BABE RUTH

There's Plenty of Life in the Old Boy Yet; Drives in Six

Boston Runs 129

VOLNEY WALSH

From Depression Baseball to Depressing Baseball

Pirates Won't Be the Same without "Most Valuable" Rosey 135

HARRY KECK

World Series Ticket Rush Swamps Pirate Officials 138

STAFF REPORTER

Rip Sewell 139

DONALD HONIG

Pittsburgh Prexy Favors Ending Jim Crow	143
LESTER RODNEY
The Sports Beat	144
WENDELL SMITH
The Traveling Casino	148
KIRBY HIGBE
Hank Greenberg	155
LAWRENCE S. RITTER
The Home Run I'd Hate to Hit	159
RALPH KINER
Sidelights on Sports	162
AL ABRAMS
Inside the Clubhouse	164
JOE GARAGIOLA
Were the 1952 Pirates the Worst Ever? Maybe So	166
JOE GARAGIOLA
32,221 See Long Set HR Mark	168
AL ABRAMS
Haddix Loses "Greatest Game"	170
LESTER J. BIEDERMAN
 A Miracle Season and the End of an Era
Bucs Bump Reds Twice, 5-0, 6-5	175
JACK HERNON
What's Got into the Pirates?	177
MYRON COPE
Pirate Champs "Team of Destiny"	188
LESTER J. BIEDERMAN
City Bats Cleanup in Series	190
JACK MCNAMARA
Series Greatest—Even Beats 1925 Win over Johnson	193
CHESTER L. SMITH
Our National Pastime	196
DAVE BARRY
Dick Stuart	199
JOHN SAYLES
My 16 Years with Roberto Clemente	202

BILL MAZEROSKI

Ballpark Figures: The Story of Forbes Field 207

DANIEL L. BONK

An Interview with Art McKennan 209

JIM HALLER AND ED LUTERAN

Winning It All—and Losing Much More

Clemente Drives Pirates to Title 213

BILL CHRISTINE

Pitching Did It 216

ROY MCHUGH

Adios Amigo Roberto 218

SAMUEL L. REGALADO

Gone for Good 224

ROGER ANGELL

The Prince of Pittsburgh 251

BOB SMIZIK

Murtaugh: Manager and Man 256

THOMAS BOSWELL

Wilver's Way 259

ROGER ANGELL

Whew, It's Over! Bucs Are Champs 263

DAN DONOVAN

Stand-Up Pirates Set Down Birds 265

PAT LIVINGSTON

"Where I Come From, Where I Am Going" 267

ELIOT ASINOF

Trouble, Transition, and a New Beginning

The Pirate Problem 275

DAVID NIGHTINGALE

The Pitcher 287

GEORGE F. WILL

Give Him a Break: Don't Boo Bonds 292

BOB SMIZIK

Saying Goodbye Would Be Hard 295

PAUL MEYER

The Education of Kevin McClatchy 299

SAM EDELMANN AND ROB RUCK

Let's Go Bucs! 304

LAURIE GRAHAM

Blass Delivers a Final Pitch to Stargell 311

RON COOK

Fans Will See a Different Brand of Baseball 314

ROBERT DVORCHAK

The Reluctant Hero 318

JOHN FERROTTO

Touched by Magic

Bang for the Bucs 325

WILLIAM NACK

Acknowledgments 339