

 CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

1. Cultures of Healing in Colonial Lima, 1535–1780 15
2. Professionalizing Healers and the Bourbon Politics of Reform, 1760–1810 49
3. Creole Medical Authority and Peninsular Vaccination Campaigns, 1802–1810 78
4. Conquering the Biblical Curse, 1804–1815 118
5. Burial Reforms, Piety, and Popular Protest, 1808–1850 157
6. Medical Education and the End of Medical Reforms, 1808–1840 192

Conclusion 218

Notes 233

Bibliography 263

Index 275