

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

vii

Introduction

3

PART I. GLOBAL PANDEMIC AND MOBILITY

1. The Origins of the Epidemic: Migrants and Refugees in Cold War Asia

27

2. Mobile People, Mobile Disease

48

PART II. CONTAGION, SOCIAL DIVISIONS, AND BORDERS

3. Social Divisions, Epidemiology, and Disease Distribution

81

4. Quarantine and Isolation: The Rise of Multiple Borders

111

PART III. PANDEMIC EMERGENCY, DATA, AND SOCIAL STRUCTURE

5. Comprehensive Inoculation, Rural Rhythms, and Compiling Registers

145

6. Stool Samples, Archiving Patients, and Statistical Politics

174

7. “No. 2 Disease”: A National Secret

201

Conclusion

225

Glossary

237

Notes

241

Bibliography

269

Index

301