

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 5

PART ONE

DISCOVERING UNEMPLOYMENT (1900s–1920s)

1. The Global Debate on Unemployment 23
2. Unemployment in Early Twentieth-Century Chile 37

PART TWO

EXPERIENCING MASSIVE UNEMPLOYMENT (1930–1938)

3. Fighting Unemployment 53
4. Social Assistance and the Rationalization of Aid 75
5. Protecting Consumers 96

PART THREE

THE ROAD TO FULL EMPLOYMENT

6. Incomplete Reforms	117
7. Full Employment and Labor Rights during the Long 1960s	137
Epilogue. Unemployment, Dictatorship, and Neoliberalism	153
Notes	163
Bibliography	215
Index	237