

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

ix

PART I: PUZZLING THROUGH OUTSIDER POLITICS

1. Problematizing Outsider Politics:
From Capitalist to Anticapitalist

5

2. Assembling a World-Historical Approach to Outsider Politics

22

PART II: THE SOCIAL ORIGINS OF CAPITALIST OUTSIDERS IN MEXICO AND VENEZUELA

3. Corruption without Capitalists in Neoliberal Mexico:
Anticorruption Common Sense

43

4. Punitive Labor Co-optation in Midcentury Venezuela:
Political Leaders Haunted by Mexico

64

5. Punitive Labor Relations in Midcentury Venezuela:
Capitalists Spooked by Mexico

83

PART III: THE SOCIAL ORIGINS OF VENEZUELA'S
ANTICAPITALIST OUTSIDERS

6. Corporate Insiders Who Embody Corruption:
A Legacy of Incorporation

109

7. The “Good Sense” in Reviled Corporate Insiders:
A Legacy of Incorporation

128

Conclusion. How Capitalists and Capitalism Matter to Outsider
Politics

147

Notes

161

References

189

Index

215