

CONTENTS

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xix

Introduction: Urban Scenarios 3

PART I: WRITING ANXIETIES

Chapter 1: Fears of Migration and Destitution in Rómulo Gallegos's Early Fiction (1909–1922) 29

Chapter 2: Landless Literature and Its Limitations in Teresa de la Parra's Ifigenia (1924) 51

PART II: MELODRAMA AT THE MARGINS

Chapter 3: Bucolic Nationalism in La balandra Isabel llegó esta tarde (1950) 73

Chapter 4: Screening Transitions: Román Chalbaud's Cain adolescente (1959) 94

PART III: CRIMINAL TESTIMONIES

Chapter 5: The Penalization of Poverty in Juan Sebastián Aldana's
Retén de Catia (1972) 117

Chapter 6: The Politics of Delinquency in Ramón Antonio
Brizuela's Soy un delincuente (1974) 139

PART IV: POLARIZED POETICS

Chapter 7: A City Divided: Caracas in Verse during the 1980s 161

Chapter 8: Performance and Protest in José Roberto Duque's Salsa y control (1996) 182

Epilogue 201

Notes 215

Bibliography 291

Index 319