

Contents

List of Abbreviations

vii

Introduction

Into and Beyond the Stalinist Model of Secret Policing

Michael David-Fox

3

1. The Origins of Stalin's Mass Operations

The Extrajudicial Special Assembly, 1922–1953

Marc Junge, Andrei Savin, and Aleksei Tepliakov

24

2. The NKVD and the Political Origins of Socialist Realism

The Persecution of the Boichukisty in Ukraine

Angelina Lucento

48

3. KGB Photography Experimentation

Turning Religion into Organized Crime

Tatiana Vagramenko

81

4. The Gulag's "Dead Souls"

Mortality of Released Invalids in the Camps, 1930–1955

Mikhail Nakonechnyi

110

5. Deciphering the Stalinist Perpetrators

The Case of Georgian NKVD Investigators Khazan, Savitskii, and Krimian

Timothy K. Blauvelt and David Jishkariani

152

-
6. “Conflicts Are the Core of Social Life”
Fomenting Mistrust at the Tallinn State Conservatory in the 1940s–1960s
Aigi Rahi-Tamm
186
7. Constructing Guilt and Tracking the Enemy
The Hunt for “State Criminals” in Soviet Lithuania, 1944–1953
Emilia Koustova
220
8. The Mug Shot and the Close-Up
Identification and Visual Pedagogy in Secret Police Film
Cristina Vatulescu
249
9. The Soviets Abroad
The NKVD, Intelligence, and State Building in East-Central Europe after World War II
Molly Pucci
278
10. The Black Sea Coast as a Landscape of Cold War Intelligence
Erik R. Scott
305
11. Recidivism, Prophylaxis, and the KGB
Edward Cohn
328
12. Human Rights Activism as International Conspiracy
Iurii Andropov, Soviet Dissidents, and “Ideological Sabotage,” 1967–1980
Douglas Selvage
349
13. Cybernetics and Surveillance
The Secret Police Enter the Computer Age
Joshua Sanborn
382
- Contributors
407
- Index
413