

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

INTRODUCTION

African American Urban Life, Culture, and Politics across Time and Space 3

LESLIE M. HARRIS, CLARENCE LANG, RHONDA Y. WILLIAMS, AND JOE WILLIAM TROTTER JR.

PART I

Race, Class, and Early American Cities 19

LESLIE M. HARRIS

CHAPTER 1

Black Surfports and Seaports in the Early Modern Atlantic World 23

KEVIN DAWSON

CHAPTER 2

Black Life in Early Charleston 41

EMMA HART

CHAPTER 3

“We Are Considered a Distinct People”: Black Consciousness
in Antebellum New York City 61

LESLIE M. ALEXANDER

PART II

Emancipation, the Great Migration, and Emergence of the Black Metropolis 89

CLARENCE LANG

CHAPTER 4

From the Slaves' Jubilee to White "Redemption":
Black Working-Class Life in Charleston, 1861–1880 97

BRIAN KELLY

CHAPTER 5

How to Escape the Graveyard of History: Edwin Garrison
Walker, Independent Politics, and the Myth of Northern White
Racial Innocence 121

MILLINGTON BERGESON-LOCKWOOD

CHAPTER 6

"Chicago Could be the Vienna of American Fascism":
The Political Culture of Black Anti-Fascism in the
New Deal Era 145

DAVARIAN BALDWIN

PART III

Modern Black Freedom Struggle, Urban Spaces, and
New Politics 169

RHONDA Y. WILLIAMS

CHAPTER 7

Black Women's Urban Activism and Radical Reparative Justice in Post-Civil Rights Philadelphia 175

MARCUS ANTHONY HUNTER

CHAPTER 8

Carceral Geography: Black Urban History and Punishment in Late Twentieth-Century Los Angeles 189

DONNA MURCH

CHAPTER 9

Race in the Rust Belt: Black Pittsburgh and Narratives of Urban Change 209

BENJAMIN HOUSTON

CHAPTER 10

A Subtlety: Race-Making, Refinement, and Redevelopment
in Brooklyn 224

AMANDA T. BOSTON

Notes 239

Bibliography 297

Contributors 303

Index 307