

CONTENTS

Note on Currency

vii

Acknowledgments

ix

INTRODUCTION:

Approaching Corruption and Anticorruption
in Venezuela, 1908–48

3

CHAPTER 1:

The Formation of a Neopatrimonial State, to 1935

21

CHAPTER 2:

The Gomecista Cattle Monopoly: A Patrimonial Enterprise

49

CHAPTER 3:

Bureaucratic Reform as Anticorruption: The Liquor Tax and Neopatrimonialism

73

CHAPTER 4:

Opponents and Prisoners: Middle-Class Honor and Anticorruption

99

CHAPTER 5:

Oil Money: Petroleum Concessions, Chapter VII Payments, and Ambiguous Corruption

126

CHAPTER 6:

Transition, 1935–45

157

CHAPTER 7:

The Corruption Trials, Public Opinion, and the Middle Class

183

CONCLUSION:

Twentieth-Century Venezuela and the Historical Study of (Anti)Corruption

215

Notes

229

Bibliography

273

Index

293