

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

vii

Introduction

Diego Armus and Pablo F. Gómez

3

1. Domingo de la Ascensión and the Criollo Healing Culture of the Seventeenth-Century Caribbean

Pablo F. Gómez

11

2. The Curing World of María García, an Indigenous Healer in Eighteenth-Century Guatemala

Martha Few

26

3. Calundu: A Collective Biography of Spirit Possession in Bahia, 1618–Present

James H. Sweet

40

4. Dorotea Salguero and the Gendered Persecution of Unlicensed Healers in Early Republican Peru

Adam Warren

55

5. Pai Domingos: Healing Slavery in Nineteenth-Century Bahia, Brazil

João José Reis

74

6. Mystic of Medicine, Modern Curandero, and “Médico Improvisado”: Francisco I. Madero and the Practice of Homeopathy in Rural Mexico at the Turn of the Twentieth Century

Jethro Hernández Berrones

89

7. Herbs, Roots, Amulets, and Prayers in the Practices of “Saint” Vicente and other Healers in São Paulo in the 1910s Liane Maria Bertucci	108
8. Recognition without a Diploma: The Wanderings of the Healer Indio Rondín in Early Twentieth-Century Colombia Victoria Estrada and Jorge Márquez Valderrama	123
9. The Miraculous Doctor Pun, Chinese Healers, and Their Patients in Lima, 1868–1930 Patricia Palma and José Ragas	138
10. Stepping through a Looking Glass: The Haitian Healer Mauricio Gastón on the Romana Sugar Mill in the Dominican Republic in 1938 Alberto Ortiz Díaz	155
11. Jesús Pueyo: The “Modern Argentine Pasteur” of the 1930s and 1940s Diego Armus	170
12. Doña Hermila Diego: Zapotec Healer, Entrepreneur, Social Activist, Media Star in Modern Mexico Gabriela Soto Laveaga	189
Notes	211
Selected Bibliography	249
List of Contributors	253
Index	255