

CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
	José Casanova
INTRODUCTION. Catholicism as a Question on Family	3
	Michel Chambon and James Ponniah
PART I. NEGOTIATING MARRIAGES WITHIN AN INTERFAITH WORLD
CHAPTER 1. Catholicism, Family, and Religious Conversion Due to Marriage in Manggarai, Flores, Eastern Indonesia	25
	Fransiska Widyawati
CHAPTER 2. Interfaith Practices in Eastern Indonesia: Asymmetric Marriage Alliance, Conversions, and Christian-Muslim Cohabitation Among the Riung of Flores	39
	Nao-Cosme Remon
CHAPTER 3. Cautioners, Defenders of Faith, Accompaniers: Catholic Priests' "Living Catholicism" and Interfaith Marriages in Mumbai, India	56
	Namita N. Manohar
PART II. CLERICAL CONSECRATION AS KINSHIP RELATION
CHAPTER 4. Being the Obedient Daughters: The Imagination of a Catholic Family in Kerala's Women's Congregations	75
	Anu K. Antony

CHAPTER 5. The Church in Their House: A Case of Naturalizing Priestly Celibacy in Singapore's Chinese Catholic Families 90

Bryan Benjamin Goh Yu Xian

CHAPTER 6. Cooking as Kinship: Religious Familism, Heritage Foods, and the Jesuit Kitchen During Pandemic Japan 109

Allen J. Kim

PART III. ASIAN CATHOLIC FAMILIES ACROSS GENERATIONS

CHAPTER 7. Rejuvenating the Symbolic Family in Crisis: Religion and Kinship Among the Catholic Amis of Taiwan 127

Shu-Ling Yeh and Sin Wen Lau

CHAPTER 8. We Are All Children of God: Conversion as a Re-Semantization of the Chinese Family Structure 143

Marco Lazzarotti

CHAPTER 9. Malaysian Tamil Catholic Families, Saints, and the Shifting Sands of the Sacred Storehouse of Communal Memory 159

Shanthini Pillai

CHAPTER 10. Kinship as Caste Politics: An Anthropological Study of Caste Endogamy and Marriage Among Catholics of South India 174

Ashok Kumar Mocherla

Notes 189

References 195

Contributors 221

Index 225